Research Bulletin

OF THE

National Education Association

VOLUME XXII

1944

No. 1, February—"Teachers Colleges after Two Years of War"

No. 2, April—"Proposals for Public Education in Postwar America"

No. 3, October—"State Tax Legislation Affecting School Revenues, 1939–1943"

No. 4, December—"Superintendents' Opinions on Compulsory Youth Programs"

The Research Bulletin is issued by the Research Division, a section of the headquarters staff of the National Education Association. This Division was created in February 1922, for the purpose of conducting scientific studies of special interest to members of the teaching profession.

RESEARCH DIVISION
NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
OF THE UNITED STATES
1201 Sixteenth Street, Northwest, Washington 6, D. C.

Research Bulletin

OF THE

National Education Association

INDEX TO VOLUME XXII, 1944

Absence: military leave in teachers colleges, 24–25; sabbatical leave in teachers colleges, 24; suggestions for, in postwar America, 56–57
Acceleration: percent of civilian students following accelerated programs in eighty-four teachers colleges in 1941 and in 1943, 18; provision for, in teachers colleges, 16–18
Administration, Proposals for postwar public education: See Postwar America, Proposals for public education in Alcoholic beverages taxes: affecting state school revenues, 86, 104; legislation by states, 104–108. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Aly, Bower: referred to, 157
American Association of Teachers Colleges: referred to, 5
American Camping Association: referred to, 158
American Council on Education: referred to, 157
American Legion: referred to, 133
American School Board Journal: referred to, 157
Anderson, Vernon E.: referred to, 157
Apprentice-Training Service: referred to, 61
Armed Forces Committee on Postwar Educational Opportunities for Service Personnel: referred to, 72, 73
Army Service Forces, Research Branch of the Morale Services: referred to, 74
Arnold, General H. H.: referred to, 133

Balch, Ernest: referred to, 153
Baldwin, Hanson W.: referred to, 157.
Beale, Captain F. L.: referred to, 153
Brown, A. D.: referred to, 157
Buildings: construction of teachers colleges since 1941, 28–29; need and expenditures for, after the war, 70, 71; postwar plans for teachers colleges, 29–30; problems relating to, 34; proposals for capacity of, after the war, 58; proposals for housing and equipment in postwar America, 57–58; use of teachers colleges, 27–28
Bureau of Labor Statistics: referred to, 61
Burns, R. K.: referred to, 157

Camp Chocorua: referred to, 153
Camping program, national: See Compulsory youth programs, Superintendents' opinions on
Camp Roosevelt: referred to, 153
Chain-store taxes: affecting school support, 86, 115–16; legislation by states, 116. See also Tax legislation affecting schools.
Civil War: referred to, 41, 153
Compulsory military training: See Compulsory youth programs, Superintendents' opinions on
Compulsory youth programs, Superintendents' opinions on: administration and support of camps, 151, 152; arguments for and against military training, 160–63; camping as an alternative to military service, 149–54; camping as educational experience not a new idea, 153–54; classification of those who replied to questionnaire, 135; combination program favored, 137–40; comments of respondents about postwar program, 139, 140; comments of respondents as to what our national policy should be, 136–37; compulsory vs. voluntary programs, if prewar program were greatly increased, 141; continuous training is recommended, 143; danger of youth movement, 148, 149; decision as to military training should be postponed, 144–45; extension of prewar efforts is recommended, 136–37; favor one year or less, 145–46; few school systems have established camps, 152–53; induction should not interfere with schooling, 142-43; length of training period, 141-42; location for national service projects, 147–48; majority would establish national service for boys only, 145; opinions as to best general postwar policy, 136–40; organization of report, 136; payment of small wage for those enrolled in program approved, 148–49; people must decide, 133–36; plan of induction favored, if compulsory military training were to be inaugurated, 142; preferred age for induction, 143; problem is complex, 133–34; projects regarded as suitable for national service, 146; purpose of study, 134; questions and discussion topics, 154–56; scope and character of camping programs, 150–51; short period of duty as "active reservist" suggested, 143-44; small majority would recognize substitute training, 143; specific proposals for military training, 141–45; specific proposals for national service, 145–49; superintendents' opinions cited, 134–35; systems of military training in other countries, 164–67; trend in other surveys of opinion, 140; variations in opinions of different groups as to postwar program, 139
Cooke, Rear Admiral Charles M.: referred to, 133
Cornick, Homer H.: referred to, 152
Corporation taxes: affecting school support, 86, 118; legislation by states, 118–21. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Curriculums: departments or curriculum fields in which maximum changes in enrolment have occurred in teachers colleges since 1941, 16–17; discontinued in teachers colleges, 13–14; in teachers colleges after two years of war, 12–19; introduced in teachers colleges since 1941, 14; problems in teachers colleges, 34; proposals for postwar, 45–47
Custodians: proposals for, in postwar America, 57

Desmond School Camp Bill: referred to, 154
Dimock, Hedley S.: referred to, 158
Drought, R. Alice: referred to, 158

Education: See Postwar America, Proposals for public education in; Compulsory youth programs, Superintendents' opinions on Education for Victory: referred to, 74, 158
Eells, Walter C.: referred to, 140, 157
Ellwood, Charles A.: referred to, 157
Enrolment: estimated postwar, 67, 68
Erskine, John: referred to, 157
Eubanks, W. W.: referred to, 157
Evening Star* (Washington): referred to, 133
Expenditures: cuts in, in seventeen teachers colleges, 27; of 130 teachers colleges, 1941–42 and 1943–44, 26
Extracurriculum activities in teachers colleges: curtailed or eliminated, 9–10; problems, 34

Federal aid: for public education in postwar America, 59
Federal Security Administrator: referred to, 64
Federal Security Agency: referred to, 64
Federal Security Agency, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation: referred to, 61, 64, 73
Finance: estimated costs of postwar educational program, 69–70, 71; estimates of needed expenditures for further training of ex-service personnel and released civilian workers, 72–73; expenditures of 130 teachers colleges, 1941–42 and 1943–44, 26; problems of, in teachers colleges, 34; proposals for financial support of public education after the war, 59; source of revenue in 126 teachers colleges, 1941–42 and 1943–44, 27. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Forrestal, James V.: referred to, 133
Fortune: referred to, 142, 143, 157

Gallup, George: referred to, 157
General sales and use taxes: affecting school support, 86, 98–99; legislation by states, 100–104. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Gibson, H. E.: referred to, 157
Gibson, H. W.: referred to, 158
Gilbert, Ben W.: referred to, 157
Givens, Willard E.: forewords by, 4, 40, 84, 132
Grace, Alonzo: referred to, 157
Graham, Abbie: referred to, 158
Green, Howard Whipple: referred to, 158
Guidance: and counseling, proposals for after the war, 47–48
Gunn, Frederick William: referred to, 153
Gunn, Mrs. Frederick William: referred to, 153
Gunnery School: referred to, 153

H. R. 1806: referred to, 133
H. R. 3947: referred to, 133, 142, 144
Hamilton, Albert Edward: referred to, 158
Harvey, C. C.: referred to, 157
Hendry, C. E.: referred to, 158

Hershey, General Lewis B.: referred to, 133
Huddle, Frank P.: referred to, 157

Income taxes: affecting school support, 86, 88–89; legislation by states, 90–95. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Inheritance, estate, and gift taxes: described briefly, 86, 96; legislation by states, 96–98. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Institute on Character Education in the Summer Camp, George Williams College: referred to, 158

Johanna M. Lindlof Camp Committee for Public School Children: referred to, 158
Johnsen, Julia E.: referred to, 157

Knox, Frank: referred to, 157

League of Nations: referred to, 157, 164, 167
Leaves of absence: See Absence
Lieberman, Joshua: referred to, 158
Lorwin, Lewis L.: referred to, 157

Marshall, General George C.: referred to, 132, 133, 157
Martin, Prestonia M.: referred to, 157
Mason, Bernard S.: referred to, 158
May, Andrew J.: referred to, 133
Military training, Compulsory: See Compulsory youth programs, Superintendents' opinions on Miscellaneous excises: as related to state school support, 86, 112; legislation by states, 113–14. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Miscellaneous license taxes: described briefly, 86, 117; legislation by states, 117–18. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Moehlman, Arthur B.: referred to, 157
Motor vehicle and motor fuel taxes: affecting school support, 86, 111; legislation by states, 111–12; tax collections, 1938–1944, 111. See also Tax legislation affecting schools

National Association of Secondary-School Principals: bulletin, referred to, 157; referred to, 79, 140
National Education Association, American Association of School Administrators: referred to, 79
National Education Association, Committee on Salaries: referred to, 79
National Education Association, Committee on Teacher Preparation and Certification: referred to, 79
National Education Association, Department of Elementary School Principals: referred to, 79
National Education Association, Department of Rural Education: referred to, 79
National Education Association, Department of Supervision and Curriculum Development: referred to, 79
National Education Association, Executive Committee: referred to, 40
National Education Association, Joint Committee of the National Education Association and American Medical Association: referred to, 79
National Education Association, National Council for the Social Studies: referred to, 79
National Education Association, National Council on Teacher Retirement: referred to, 79
National Education Association, Representative Assembly: referred to, 40
National Education Association, *Research Bulletin: referred to, 79, 85, 126
National Education Association, Research Division: Continuing Crisis in Education, referred to, 32; referred to, 43, 70, 72
National Education Association and American Association of School Administrators, Educational Policies Commission: referred to, 79, 144, 157
National Survey of the Education of Teachers: referred to, 31
New York Times: referred to, 133
Nimitz, Admiral Chester W.: referred to, 133
Normal schools: See Teachers colleges after two years of war

Osborn, Minott A.: referred to, 158
Osborne, Ernest Glenn: referred to, 158

Patterson, Robert P.: referred to, 133, 157
Peik, Wesley E.: referred to, 31
Phelps, Edith M.: referred to, 157
Pittenger, A. O.: referred to, 158
Post War World Council: referred to, 157
Postwar America, Proposals for public education in: agencies for professional preparation and certification, 55; appraisal of wartime training and experience in readjustment process, 60; background and development of American public education, 41–42; bases of personnel selection, 54, 57; capacity of buildings, 58; capital outlay, 70, 71; care for certain children, 50; contracts, 56; cooperative school services, 50; costs, 69–70, 71; current operating expenses, 68, 69; curriculum, 44–47; custodians, 57; democratic school administration, 53; desirable goals for public education after the war, 43–59; economic security of nonprofessional employees, 57; effects of the war upon schools, 42; entrance requirements, 52; estimates of needed expenditures for further training of ex-service personnel and released civilian workers, 72–73; financial support, 59; financing the readjustment program, 63; further schooling for war veterans and released civilian workers, 71–74; general character of suitable postwar program of readjustment, 60–61; grade organization, 52; guidance and counseling, 47–48; housing and equipment, 57–58; instructional equipment, 58; integration of vocational and general education, 51; leaves of absence, 56–57; length of school term, 51; meals at school, 50; nonprofessional employees, 57; number needing special assistance and length of training, 73; number of staff members needed, 67–69; number of war veterans and civilian workers by type of institution, 72, 73–74; nurses, 54; obtaining teachers and guidance specialists for readjustment program, 62–63; office employees, 57; organization and administration of public-school services, 48–57; organization and planning within the states for readjustment program, 62; organization to utilize special educational activities, 51; participating agencies and their functions in the readjustment program, 61–62; personnel and cost of the suggested program, 67–74; personnel to be served, 44; postwar "goal" program, 67–70; postwar probabilities, 42; preservice education of personnel, 54–55; principals of schools, 53; probable operating cost, 59; professional employees, 53–57; professional growth in service, 55; program to be provided, 44–48; pupil grouping and promotion, 51; readjustment of released nondisabled persons, 63–64; rehabilitation of disabled persons, 64–66; relationships with other educational and recreational agencies, 52; reorganization of school administrative units, 49–50; retirement provisions, 56; salaries, 55–56; school enrolments, 67, 68; school transportation, 50; scope and purpose of study of, 42–43; size of class, 52; size of school attendance units, 50; size of school grounds, 58; specialists on the staff, 54; state and local responsibility, 48–49; state schools for certain purposes, 50–51; state tax trends and postwar school needs, 125–26; student aid, 59; student-aid programs, administration of, 52–53; summary of needed action—local, state, and federal, 75–78; superintendent of schools, 53; teachers, counselors, and librarians, 53–54; training and maintenance costs for veterans and civilians, 72, 73; training and readjustment of persons discharged from armed forces or released from civilian occupations, 60–66
Property taxes: described, 86, 121; legislation by states, 121–25. See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Pulliam, Roscoe: referred to, 157

Rankin, Edgar Ralph: referred to, 157
Readjustment program of veterans and civilians: appraisal of wartime training and experience, 60; financing the program, 63; general character of, 60–61; obtaining adequate supply of teachers and guidance specialists for, 62–63; organization and planning within the states, 62; participating agencies and their functions, 61-62; readjustment of nondisabled persons, 63–64; rehabilitation of disabled persons, 64–66
Ready, Marie M.: referred to, 158
References: on camping, 158; on compulsory military service, 157; on national service, 157; on postwar education, 79
Retirement: suggested provisions for, in postwar America, 56
Roosevelt, Franklin D.: referred to, 132, 133
ROTC: referred to, 136, 141, 143, 152, 153, 155

S. 637: referred to, 155
Salaries: proposals for professional employees', in postwar America, 55–56; trends in teachers colleges, 22
Salomon, Julian H.: referred to, 158
Sanders, J. Edward: referred to, 158
Sargent, Porter: referred to, 158
Scholastic Magazine: referred to, 140, 157
School clerks: proposals for, in postwar America, 57
School personnel: proposals for, after the war, 53–58
School revenues, State tax legislation affecting: See Tax legislation affecting schools
School support: See Tax legislation affecting schools
School term: proposals for length of, 51
Selective Service: referred to, 72
Selective Service Act: referred to, 42
Selective Service System: referred to, 61
Severance taxes: as related to state school support, 86, 114; legislation by states, 114–15; See also Tax legislation affecting schools
Sharp, Lloyd Burgess: referred to, 158
Spencer, L. M.: referred to, 157
Stimson, Henry L.: referred to, 133
Superintendents' opinions on compulsory military training: See Compulsory youth programs, Superintendents' opinions on

Tax legislation affecting schools: alcoholic beverage taxes, 86, 104–108; by states, 90–95, 96–98, 100–104, 105–108, 109–110, 113, 114–15, 116, 117–18, 119–21, 122–25; chain-store taxes, 86, 115–16; characteristics of state tax legislation, 1939–1943, 125–26; citations to laws, 94–95, 97–98, 103–104, 107–108, 110–11, 112, 114, 115, 116, 118, 120–21, 124–25; corporation taxes 86, 118–21; general sales and use taxes, 86, 98–104; income taxes, 86, 88–95; inheritance, estate, and gift taxes, 86, 96–98; long-time trends and school needs, 126; miscellaneous excises, 86, 112–14; miscellaneous license taxes, 86, 117–18; motor vehicle and motor fuel taxes, 86, 111–12; property taxes, 86, 121–25; scope of the report, 85–86; severance taxes, 86, 114–15; state corporation income taxes as related to school support, 1929, 1933, 1938, and 1943, 89; state general sales and use tax collections, 1938–1944, 99; state general sales and use taxes as related to state school support, 1929, 1933, 1938, and 1943, 99; state motor fuel sales tax collections, 1938–1944, 111; state personal and corporation income tax collections, 1938–1944, 89; state personal income tax as related to school support, 1929, 1933, 1938, and 1943, 88; state tax collections, 1938–1944, 87; state tobacco taxes as related to school support, 1929, 1933, 1938, and 1943, 109; tobacco taxes, 86, 108–11; trends and postwar school needs, 125–26; types of taxes defined, 86.

Taylor, J. Madison: referred to, 153

Teachers colleges after two years of war: acceleration, provisions for, 16–18; admission of nonhigh-school graduates to teachers colleges, 18–19; building construction since 1941, 28–29; building problems, 34; building use, 27–28; causes of loss of enrolment, 7–8; causes of withdrawal of members of teachers college staffs between 1941 and 1943, 21; change in instructional emphases, 15–16; changes in student personnel, 8–9; courses discontinued, 13; credit granted students upon entrance into armed forces, 10; credits to be allowed when students return from military service, 10; current problems in teacher education, 34–35; curriculum patterns, 12–13; curriculum problems, 34; cuts in expenditures in seventeen teachers colleges, 27; departments and curriculums added since 1941, 14; departments or curriculum fields in which maximum changes in enrolment have occurred since October 1941, 16–17; departments or curriculums discontinued, 13; distribution of civilian students in 148 colleges according to types of curriculums being followed, 12; emergency certificates issued in, 4; enrolment in, compared with enrolment in 1941, 6–7; enrolment in military and war service programs in, 8; enrolment of civilian students in, 7; expenditures of 130 teachers colleges for 1941–42 and 1943–44, 26; extent of reduction of teaching staffs between 1941 and 1943 in 139 colleges, 20; extent to which 148 teachers colleges are operating below their optimum student capacity, 28; extracurriculum activities, 9–10; extracurriculum problems, 34; fields in which difficulty has been encountered in finding competent instructors to fill vacancies, 21-22, 33; fields in which specific new courses have been introduced because of wartime conditions, 15; fields of greatest shortage, 32; financial and housing situation, 26–30; financial problems, 34; gains and losses resulting from wartime adjustments, 32–34; general regulations affecting students, 11; length of teaching year in, 23–24; loss of teachers in, 4; military leave, 24–25; morale of faculty members in, 25; morale of students, 11; new courses introduced, 14–15; number and size of military and other war service programs, 8; number of men and women on faculties of 139 colleges in 1941 and in 1943, 19; NYA aid to students, substitutes for, 10–11; organization of bulletin on, 6; outlook in teacher education, 30–35; output of teachers colleges, 30–32; outside work by students, 9; percent of civilian students following accelerated programs in eighty-four teachers colleges in 1941 and in 1943, 18; percent of decrease in, compared with 1941, 7; percent of staff members assigned to instruction of civilian students, 20; personnel policies affecting staff members, 23–25; personnel practices affecting students, 10–11; postwar building plans, 29–30, 35; problems of equipment and supplies, 34; procedure followed in study of, 5; programs of instruction, 12–19; proportion of men and women enrolled in, 7; ratio of men and women among instructors of military and war service classes in 139 teachers colleges, 20; ratio of regular staff members to visiting professors and temporary appointees in 139 teachers colleges, 20; readjustments of teaching staffs, 19–22; sabbatical leave, 24; salary trends, 22; source of revenue in 126 teachers colleges, 1941–42 and 1943–44, 26–27; staff problems, 34; student load, 9; student problems, 34; students, 6–11; students leaving ninety-four teachers colleges in four recent years and type of work for which students were prepared, 32; students leaving 112 teachers colleges in four recent years, and length of courses completed, 31; teacher turnover, 21; teaching load, 22–23; teaching staff, 19–25

Teaching load: median student-teacher ratio and median size of class of teachers colleges, 1941 and 1943, 22–23

Teaching staffs: causes of withdrawal of, in teachers colleges between 1941 and 1943, 21; difficulty in finding competent instructors to fill vacancies in teachers colleges, 21–22; extent of reduction between 1941 and 1943 in 139 teachers colleges, 20; morale of, in teachers colleges, 1941 and 1943, 25; number needed for postwar program, 67–69; number of men and women on faculties of 139 teachers colleges in 1941 and in 1943, 19; percent of staff members assigned to instruction of civilian students, 20; personnel policies affecting, in teachers colleges, 23–25; problems of, in teachers colleges, 34; ratio of men and women among instructors of military and war service classes in 139 teachers colleges, 20; ratio of regular staff members to visiting professors and temporary appointees in 139 teachers colleges, 20; readjustments of, in teachers colleges, 19–22; turnover of, in teachers colleges, 21

Tenure: proposals for teachers' contracts in postwar America, 56

Thomas, Norman H.: referred to, 157

Tobacco taxes: as related to school support, 1929, 1933, 1938, and 1943, 109; described, 86, 108–109; legislation by states, 109–11. See also Tax legislation affecting schools

Town Meeting of the Air: referred to, 157

Trends: in morale of faculty members of teachers colleges, 25; in salaries in teachers colleges, 22; in state taxes and postwar school needs, 125–26; opinions of educators regarding compulsory military training, 140

U. S. Armed Forces Institute: referred to, 60, 61

U. S. Bureau of the Census, Governments Division: referred to, 87, 89, 99, 111, 126

U. S. Employment Service: referred to, 61

U. S. Office of Education: referred to, 5, 7, 49, 59, 61, 64, 67, 69, 71, 134

Van Wagenen, Beulah Clark: referred to, 158

Veterans' Administration: referred to, 61, 64, 66, 73

Vetter, Roy A.: referred to, 158

Villard, Oswald Garrison: referred to, 157

Vocational education: integration of, and general education after the war, 51

Wadsworth, James W.: referred to, 133

War Department: referred to, 72, 153

War, Effect of, on teachers colleges: See Teachers colleges after two years of war

War Manpower Commission: referred to, 73

War Production Board: referred to, 106

War Service Institute: referred to, 10

Washington Post: referred to, 133

Women's Army Corps: referred to, 8, 28

World War I: referred to, 96, 126, 135, 143, 156, 161

World War II: referred to, 85, 88, 92, 96, 97, 123, 133, 156, 160, 161, 164